

S.B.Criminal Revision Petition No.995/2007

State of Rajasthan & Ors.

Date of Order :: 26th October, 2007

HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE GOVIND MATHUR

Mr. J.S.Choudhary, for the petitioner.
Mr. Vishnu Kachhawaha, Public Prosecutor.

....

By this petition under Section 397 read with 401 Cr.P.C. a challenge is given by the petitioner to the order dated 12.6.2007 passed by learned Special Judge, SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act Cases, acquitting the respondents No.2 to 5 from the offences under Sections 447, 435, 379 IPC and for the offence under Section 3(i)(V) of the SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989.

The contention of counsel for the petitioner is that the trial court while acquitting the non-petitioners referred above failed to appreciate the evidence available on record in correct perspective.

I have examined the order impugned.

Learned trial court has considered the entire evidence available on record and by sound appreciation of that reached at a specific conclusion.

Under revisional jurisdiction of this Court re-appreciation of evidence is not permissible, thus, it is not a case fit to be interfered by this Court. On face of the order I am also satisfied that no miscarriage of justice took place in the matter.

Hence, the revision petition is dismissed.
